This is the third office action for application number 10/829,463, Sway Brace Clamp, filed on April 20, 2004.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the primary reasons for allowance of the claims in this application are the limitations of a sway brace clamp having two elongate bars, fasteners, wherein the elongate bar includes an arcuate section, and each of the arcuate sections defining a center of curvature which lies substantially in the common attachment plane of the respective bar with the attachment surfaces of the first straight sections against the attachment surfaces of the second straight sections, respectively, and with each of the arcuate sections stressed and deformed about the specified outside diameter, each of the centers of curvature lying substantially in the common attachment plane being offset away from the respective defining arcuate section across the common attachment plane thereof when the bar is unstressed, now included essentially in claims 5 and 11, in combination with the other elements recited, which is not found in the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
